

NOW FIGHT
FOR BUTTONSChicago Strike Revives Its Waning Strength.

TRUCK DRIVERS NOW OUT

Nearly Fifty Leading Houses and Factories are Strike-Bound—The Drivers are Unwilling to Give Up Buttons.

Chicago, July 24.—Despite the death warrant signed by the teamsters' council the teamsters' strike suddenly revived, receiving a new infusion of life from the truck drivers. Seven hundred truck drivers went on strike this morning, nearly fifty leading houses and factories being strike-bound. The truck drivers are not willing to give up union buttons and decided to stay out. It is now a fight for union buttons.

TRAIN STRUCK CHILDREN.

Two Little Girls Badly Bruised But Not Killed.

Rutland, July 24.—A west bound Delaware & Hudson train struck two little girls who were playing on the track at Center Rutland Saturday afternoon and although both were badly bruised their injuries are not considered dangerous. Grace, the three-year-old daughter of Frank Batiska and Anna, daughter of Michael Fraws, also three years old, were playing between the rails of the Delaware & Hudson tracks and did not notice the approaching train.
The engineer saw the children but was unable to stop his train before it reached them.

The little girls were struck by the engine and thrown from the track. They were picked up by train hands and carried to a nearby house and a physician summoned.

The Batiska girl did not regain consciousness for over an hour, her body being covered with bruises. The Fraws child was badly bruised about the head and body.

MAN'S SKULL CRUSHED.

A Polish Wedding Celebration Has Serious Results—Some Arrests.

Latrobe, Pa., July 24.—During the celebration of a Polish wedding at Baggaley, a mining town near Latrobe, early Sunday morning, Steven Bono had his skull crushed and is reported to be in a dying condition. News of the fracas reached Latrobe yesterday afternoon, when a physician was sent for to attend the injured man. A posse of officers accompanied the physician and upon reaching the house they were met by a mob of foreigners who resented their attempt to arrest Bono's assailants and tried to drive them out of town. The officers, by firing their revolvers over the heads of the crowd, succeeded in frightening them away and arrested John Colol and Mike Fieeman. John Kuzlus, the third man wanted by the officers, escaped.

A RENOMINATION FOR BELL.

Brattleboro Correspondent Says It is Among the Possibilities.

The Brattleboro correspondent to the Springfield Republican, in his Sunday letter, professes to have gathered the following political gossip from the gathering of newspaper men in his town Friday and Saturday of last week. It will do for hot weather political gossip, but it's too far away from the state campaign to be more than gossip. Here it is.

Some things leaked out at the gathering of the newspaper men here of a political character which may have some significance concerning the intentions of certain factions of the republican party in next year's gubernatorial campaign. Possibly the days of stereotyped commendation of plotting candidates for office are passing away. While the general outlook or surface indications for months have foreshadowed the nomination next year of regulation candidates selected in the old way upon the basis of the candidate's thirst, if not fitness for the office, it is suggested that there is likely to be a healthy break in the continuous chain of selection, aided by a spirit of independence more noticeable now than ever before among newspaper guild. Things, it is hinted, are able to happen which may set aside the best-laid plans of the long-time dominant regime in staid old Republican Vermont. Among the possibilities of this upheaval is the re-nomination and re-election of Gov. Bell, whom the labor and grange elements are expected to support provided he shall consent to re-election. Already a movement to that end is on foot, and it will be worth watching to note its effect upon the plans of one or two aspirants to the governorship who are said to have already played successfully among the politicians heretofore controlling state politics.

"Another scheme is quietly discussed, that of making John A. Moad of Rutland the next governor. This is thought to be in opposition to Col. Fletcher Proctor's hopes, and is probably intended as a move in time to prevent Proctor from securing the Rutland county delegation to the state convention. There are other combinations which have their supporters, but the above represents quite a favorable sentiment. It is said, in Washington and Rutland counties, and that there is something besides talk in these suggestions is proved by the number of letters from prominent people throughout the state urging them on."

HIS LUNGS CUT APART.

Richford Man Terribly Lacerated on a Circular Saw.

Richford, July 24.—Benjamin Martin, a middle aged man employed in the Comings saw mill in this village, met with an accident Saturday which resulted in his death. Martin fell on a circular saw, which struck him in the left thigh and cut up through his side to his lungs, which were cut apart. In some manner the saw then threw him over and cut off his right knee cap. Practically all the doctors in the village were summoned.

Morning.

Humble, Texas, July 24.—A million barrels of oil were burned here Sunday during a hard electrical storm, entailing a loss of about $250,000. Lightning struck a tank containing 238,000 barrels and the fire spread across the prairie to other tanks several miles away. Large amount of equipment was destroyed.

Passengers Injured.

seriously.

ENTERTAINED HIS FRIENDS.

A. E. Batchelder Was Host on Pleasant Occasion.

A. E. Batchelder entertained about 100 of his friends at his farm in Williamstown Saturday afternoon. People from New York, Boston, Barre and Montpelier made up the party. The affair was in the form of a picnic and was held in the large orchard in front of the house. Refreshments were served and in the evening music for dancing was furnished by Messrs. McGowan and Jenkins. Everyone reports a most enjoyable time and all agree in declaring Mr.
Batchelder an ideal host.

In the last dance the lightest dancer on the floor weighed over 300 pounds.
Imagine the strain on the floor.

TOOK STRYCHNINE.

Little Child of Rutland Physician Nearly Died.

Rutland, July 24.—Harriet, the seventeen months' old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. Halford Miner of this city had a narrow escape from death by strychnine poisoning Sunday afternoon at their summer cottage on Lake Bomoseen.
The child found a box of tablets in her mother's satchel and had four in her mouth when discovered. The father was away but there happened to be a physician near the cottage. A stomach pump was improvised from a fountain syringe and it is expected that the little girl will recover.

TO SHUT DOWN
FOR TWO DAYSGranite Manufacturers Going on Annual Picnic.

LEAVE THURSDAY NIGHT

Will Be Guests of Quincy Manufacturers Until Sunday Night, When Return Trip Will Be Made.

The granite cutting industry of the city and Montpelier will be at a standstill for two days, beginning Thursday night when the manufacturers leave on their annual excursion to Quincy, Mass., and various attractive outlying districts.
Work will be resumed in most of the sheds again on Monday morning.

Secretary James Campbell of the association outlines the plans in the following:

"Arrangements have been made with the M. & W. R. R. for a special train, made up of two Pullman coaches and two regulation cars to leave Barre at 9:30 Thursday evening, July 27. Returning, leave Boston Sunday night, July 30, at 11 o'clock, arriving in Barre 6 a. m., Monday.

"The committee at the Quincy end have been busy getting satisfactory arrangements made whereby everybody that goes will be insured a good time.
Permission has been granted to visit the Fore River Ship Building Co.'s Plant, so we will have an opportunity of seeing a battleship in process of construction."

"The committee at this end of the route have made arrangements with the railroad company for a $6.50 rate to Boston and return. Tickets may be obtained at any time between now and eight o'clock the evening of the 27th, by applying to James Campbell, secretary Granite Manufacturers' association.
At this gathering there will be representatives from all the New England granite centers. On the evening of Friday, July 28, there is to be a meeting held in Quincy, where we will have an opportunity to get acquainted with one another and in all probability there will be some interesting topics discussed which will be of material benefit to the trade in general."

"It is the earnest wish of the Committee that each member will consider it his duty to be present. On Thursday evening, when you lock your office door, please lock in your troubles, and come and have a good time with the boys.
It will certainly do you good in more ways than one."

Mr. Campbell has a few extra tickets which will be sold to friends of the Association, but in order to secure them application should be made at once.

AN ELUSIVE HORSE.

Dr. Joe W. Jackson's Saddle Horse, Captured, Breaks Loose Again.

Dr. Joe W. Jackson's saddle horse is elusive as well as valuable. After a several days' chase the animal was located Saturday night by the aid of the steam printed in this paper Saturday.
The horse was wandering about in George Wilbur's mowing in Williamstown. He was put in the barn Wednesday night, and was being kept there until advertised. When Dr. J. Henry Jackson went to get him he found that the animal had given him the slip again.
Saturday night Wilbur's barn door was left open, and the animal got loose.
Brookfield parties saw the horse yesterday morning, and the pursuers hope to catch up with him before long. The horse is a dark bay, about fifteen hands high and weighs 1,000 pounds; has white star, white nose and one white hind foot; no shoes.

Dr. Joe W. Jackson is visiting in Maline.

HOPE FOR RETURN OF DAUGHTER.

Miss Grace Paige, Now in London, May Return to Barre.

Miss Grace Paige, formerly a well-known teacher and popular young woman of this city, according to advices received by friends in this city, is ill in London, where she has been a good portion of the time since leaving Barre.
Letters have been received from Miss Paige that lead to the hope that she may soon return to her relatives here, who would be only too glad to welcome her, and they are now awaiting a letter from her saying that she is to return to Barre.

SOUTH MAIN STREET PROBABLY.

For Extension of Street Railroad Up the South End.

The special committee of the city council having the street railroad extension in charge met Attorney Hoar of the road Saturday and went over a proposed course. The course, which appeared to be the most satisfactory, is not given out, but it is said that the South Main street trail was followed.

RAID MADE YESTERDAY

Italian Picnic Was Broken Up by Party of Raiders Yesterday Afternoon —Eight Respondents in Court.

"There's going to be a devil of a bust-up before the month is out, boys," declared Chief of Police Brown to his force Saturday, as he surveyed the almost immaculate police court record for the month of July. And sure enough, there was. Between that time and this morning one after another of the force brought in various offenders, supplemented by the sheriffs department, until a total of eight prisoners had been arranged, with charges which filled three pages of the court record.

As the result of a raid on an Italian picnic at Townsend's grove, participated in by policemen and sheriffs, yesterday afternoon, two men were in court this morning. The picnic was at its height at one o'clock when the small army of officers were in sight. They seized two half barrels and one quarter barrel of beer, eight jugs of sour wine, and along with it three pails, 23 glasses, and some rifles and cartridges. They didn't get the stuff without some rough-house, as the picnicers didn't wish to give up the stuff. There were many protestations, and during the excitement Antonio Cavalazzi jumped for a rifle.
The officers jumped with him, and got a grip on the gun at the same time. There was nothing to show that Cavalazzi had any intentions of using the weapon, but the officers wanted to be on the safe side of the gun. He was finally handcuffed.

Cavalazzi was charged with breach of the peace in court this morning, and denied that he had any bad intentions in jumping for the gun. He will be tried on the charge tomorrow morning.

Paul Mainini looked to the officers as if he was the one dealing out the liquor, and he was arrested. In court today Mainini was charged with two offenses, keeping and furnishing. He pleaded not guilty and will be given a trial Wednesday. Bail of $350 was furnished by D. Guidice, in those two cases and also that of State vs. Intoxicating Liquor. The outcome of the trial will determine the rights in regard to picnics, and Sunday picnics especially.
The authorities state that there may be arrests for violation of the Sunday law.

Sheriff Frank Tracey of Montpelier was the leader of the raiding party, having the warrants.

Henry Stewart was gathered in by Chief Brown Saturday. He said "Guilty" when arraigned for intoxication, and John Jarvis, arrested by Officer Carle, said the same. Each was fined $5 with costs of $7.00.

Andrew DeRoscher and Ellery La-Belle, Iverman, got into so heated an argument over the driving of a horse that the former resorted to physical force to fill out the intervals when his word power failed him. He decorated LaBelle's eye with a black fringe and kicked another of the LaBelle's in the shins, just for emphasis. It seems that DeRoscher hired a horse at the LaBelle stable Saturday and brought it back in such a condition that the owner protested. DeRoscher gave himself up to the police when he heard he was wanted.
He paid $47.29 for the privilege of giving a black eye and kicking a shin.

William Ducharme, arrested by Officer Hamel, pleaded guilty to a second offense of intoxication, and was assessed $15 with costs of $9.99, which came pretty near being a mark-down from $25.

John Wilson was picked up by Officer Hamel Saturday night. He readily pleaded guilty to a second offense of intoxication, and as the fracture of the law was less than six months from the previous offense, Wilson was called upon to make disclosure. He disclosed on himself. State's Attorney Jackson sent Wilson's memory tracing out the course of his travels Saturday.

"Were you in Montpelier Saturday?" was the first question asked. Wilson admitted to the offense, but said that he didn't get anything down there. Nor could he get anything in Barre, for "they know me," he said. His supply came from Lawrence, Mass., he ordered it and paid $5 for it, receiving it by express. The supply included whiskey, brandy, gin, rum and several other kinds.

"Do you know how much you drank?" asked the state's attorney.
"I drank too much," was the nearest estimate Wilson could make.

He was fined the usual amount for a second offense.

STATEMENT BY A. TRUEBA.

Gives His Version of the Raid at Townsend's Grove Yesterday.

Editor Times: Reading this morn-ing's Telegram we would think that a pitched battle was fought yesterday in Townsend's grove between the Italians and police, in which the brave 23 police defeated a hundred Italians armed with rifles, and that last night the Italians were on the war path ready to assault the police and take away the prisoners.
This kind of sensational news I consider very proper of a St. Petersburg paper owned by Trepoff, in which the people appear to be a lot of criminals, and the Cossacks heroes.

What were the facts? I will explain: The Italian colony—that very colony that has made Barre what it is, is furnishing the best artists of the world to the granite industry of our city—went up to Townsend's grove yesterday to enjoy a day with their families away from the unhealthy shop, out to the woods to breathe a little fresh air and fraternize with their neighbors.

As a few families were eating their dinner, caring for their loved children, laughing and chatting with their neighbors, a band of 23 policemen broke into their happy camp, scaring women, terrorizing children, clubbing down girls, taking men away with their property.

What about the "big amount of firearms used by the wrathful Italians against the police"? There were, among many different things proper to a picnic, three rifles such as are used in every shooting gallery. These rifles were never in the hands of the Italians, but were taken by the police along with other objects; besides, we all know that such kinds of arms are dangerous enough so as to pierce a chicken's heart to pieces at a four foot distance.

All the resistance—according to the police themselves—was that of a man whose rifle was taken away, who claimed his property and insisted to have the police give it back. For such a resistance the man was handcuffed as a Jesse James and landed in jail.

Writing these facts I don't expect the Telegram will stop writing such sensational news as it always does when there is a chance to create bad feeling against the industrious, peace-loving Italian colony. There is a Spanish proverb that says: "The fox may lose his tail, but not his habits."

CRUSHED TO DEATH
BENEATH A ROCKFred Lougee Instantly Killed on Wheat-on's New Quarry—Funeral Was Held This Afternoon.

Fred Lougee was crushed beneath a large block of granite and instantly killed on Wheaton's new quarry on Cob-ble Hill Saturday. Workmen were preparing to move a large base and had it blocked up. They started to put a chain under a man standing on the stone and passing the chain to Lougee, who crawled under to receive it. As Lougee got his head and body under, the stone slipped and came down on the prostrate man, driving life from the body. Ordinarily a hook is used to draw the chain beneath the stone, but the unfortunate man decided to crawl under after it.

The body was removed to the man's home in the George Wheaton district, and Dr. G. O. Stickney was called. Life was extinct, however, and undoubtedly death was instantaneous.

The deceased was born in Washington 42 years ago. He had been employed in quarrying for many years. He leaves a widow and five children, the oldest of whom is 17 years old and the youngest 8. The funeral was held this afternoon at one o'clock, the Rev. R. F.
Love of the Methodist church officiating.
The interment was in the village cemetery in Chelsea, and the burial was in charge of the Foresters of America, of which order the deceased was a member.

VIRTUES OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.

Pointed Out in Annual Sermon to Grantville Bodies.

Granville, July 24.—The first annual religious service of Granite Mountain Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Victor Lodge, I. O. O. F., was observed here last evening by a large delegation of members from both lodges, the procession leaving Miles hall at 6:30 p. m., Granite Mountain Lodge in advance and escorting Victor Lodge, as it were. Both men and women marched with military precision over Main and Cassia streets to the Presbyterian church, where the Rev. Mr. Strong of Williamstown impressively pointed out the intrinsic virtues and sound morality of true Odd Fellowship.

Granite Mountain Lodge was organized less than a year ago and has in its ranks the most of the leading citizens and business men of Granville.
Victor Lodge has also been organized less than a year, and the ladies, if anything, are further ahead on the road to prosperity.

REFRESHED
BY HIS TRIPRev. P. M. McKenna Returns to His Church.

FIVE MONTHS' ABSENCE

Visited Many Countries Including Palestine—With Party of Priests Had Special Audience With the Pope.

Rev. P. M. McKenna, pastor of St.
Monica's church, returned Saturday night from a five months' trip abroad.
When seen by a Times' reporter this morning, Rev. Mr. McKenna told the story of his trip in a very interesting manner.

The party sailed from New York, February 2nd, on the steam ship Arabia of the White Star line. They stopped for a few days at the tropical Madeira Islands. On these beautiful islands the orange and lemon groves were in full bloom and were also loaded with fruit, quite a change from the cold, wintry New York which they had left only a few days' before. From here they went to Cadix and Seville in Spain, thence to Gibraltar, Algiers, Malta and to Athens.

At Athens the party visited many places, among them the battlefield of Marathon where a little band of the heroic Greeks withstood the great Persian army, also the famous Forum, from which Demosthenes harried his great philippics. From Athens the party went on to Constantinople where they were fortunate enough to see the Sultan as he went to public mass on Friday morning. After spending a few days in Constantinople, they proceeded to Smyrna and then to Caiffa in Palestine, where they took carriages to Nazareth, visiting Cana, the place where our Lord performed His first miracle; Mt. Tabor, the Mount of the Transfiguration; the Mount of the Beatitudes, the city of Tiberius across the Sea of Galilee, and Magdala, the home of Mary Magdalene.

The party then went on to Jerusalem, where they visited many places famous as being connected with our Lord's life upon earth. They said mass over the manger in which Christ was born in Bethlehem and also at the tomb where Christ was buried. They visited Mount Olivet, the Garden of Gethsemane, the river Jordan, where the Lord was baptized, Mount Nebo, where Moses died, the Tomb of Lazarus and the home of Mary and Martha. From Jerusalem they went back to Alexandria in Egypt and along the fertile delta of the Nile At Cairo they went through the palace the Holy Family stayed during their sojourn in Egypt, visiting the Pyramids and the wonderful museum of Cairo.

In the museum the party were shown the mummy of Ramses II, the Pharaoh of the Exodus. They also visited the spot where the baby Moses was found in the bulrushes by Pharaoh's daughter.
At Cairo they went through the palace of the Khedive, the ruler of Egypt.
From Egypt the party went on to Naples and thence to Rome.

At Rome the American priests in the party were granted a special audience with Pope Pius X, on March 26th. While in Rome they visited St. Peter's cathedral, the ancient city of Pompeii and Vesuvius. Then proceeding along the Mediterranean they stopped at Ville-franche and visited Monte Carlo. From Villefranche the party sailed directly to Liverpool. From that place Rev. Fr.
McKenna went to Ireland, where he visited many interesting places. The party sailed for home on the Arabia July 8th from Queenstown, arriving in Boston, July 15th.

Rev. McKenna is much improved in health as a result of his long and interesting trip and returns to his parish and people strong and hearty.

EVERY UNION AFFILIATED.

Every Barre Labor Organization Is Now Connected With State Branch.

There is not a union in Barre which is not now affiliated with the State Branch, American Federation of Labor.
The last of the flock were rounded up Saturday and yesterday the plumbers affiliated Saturday night and the bartenders yesterday. In Montpelier there are still three organizations which are not included in the state branch. They are the stone cutters, the carpenters and the painters. It is expected that they will have joined by the end of this week. The roundup of the stragglers is largely due to the efforts of P. F.
McCarthy and Alex. Ironside of this city.

This evening Organizer P. J. Halvosa and Vice President Ironside will meet the Montpelier granite cutters tonight in the interests of the State Branch.
